

TRAINING PROGRAMME LOUWERS IP | TECHNOLOGY ADVOCATEN

Our law firm offers an extensive course and training programme. If you wish, we can provide these courses and trainings on location or at one of our offices. In consultation with you, we can also provide tailor-made courses and trainings.

Privacy and data protection	Content	Duration
Introduction to the General Data Protection Regulation	The General Data Protection Regulation entails many new and detailed obligations. In this course we will discuss these obligations and how to implement these within your organisation.	2 hours
Working with privacy sensitive datasets	Big data and artificial intelligence do not seem to have technical boundaries. For lawyers, however, it involves complex issues. During this course we will discuss these issues and how to deal with them in practice.	2 hours
Litigation within data protection law	The number of legal proceedings within data protection law is constantly increasing. In this course we will explain the different proceedings that can be instituted against your organisation, which risks are involved and how these procedures can be prevented.	2 hours
The handling of customer data	The General Data Protection Regulation and Dutch Telecommunications Act impose requirements on the processing of customer data. During this course we will discuss these requirements and what this means in practice.	1,5 hours
Adequate handling of data breaches	Data breaches are the order of the day. This course ensures a thorough preparation for a possible data breach and awareness within your organisation.	1,5 hours

The nature and scope of the course material will vary from case to case, but the approach is always practical and intended to provide you with useful tools. We try to tailor the course or training to the participants as much as possible. In the case of in-house courses, we will discuss your concerns in advance so that you can get the most out of our courses and trainings.

If you are interested in our courses, please let us know, so that we can offer you a free quote.
